Solano Invitational Collegiate Tournament Recap

Friday, July 28, 2017 Mudcats 7, Wildcats 6

The Solano Invitational's final pool play game was the best one yet. With playoff round implications at stake, the Solano Mudcats snatched the victory 7-6. Kweisi Samuel hit a 2 out double in the top of the final frame, which got Luke Knoble to 3rd. After pinch hitter Joey Dodson entered the game, the Wildcats pitcher made a wild pitch, plated Knoble for the goa head run. A 3 up, 3 down bottom half secured the final playoff spot for the Mudcats. They will take on host Rockville, in a rematch of the Thursday night game.
